The Opéra national du Rhin (OnR) is recruiting young opera singers for the 2024/2025 season of its Opera Studio, directed by Sandrine Abello.

The teaching programme features the following

- performing roles and covering in productions during the OnR's season (from rehearsals to performances)
- master classes with artists of international reputation in various repertoires (French, Italian, German etc.)
- perfecting stage expression and acting.
- learning and studying the individual repertoire in depth
- concerts, recitals, semi-staged performances, dinners on stage, collaborations with the Ballet of the OnR, with actors, etc.
- participation in external events: institutions, companies, friends of the OnR, partners, cultural and teaching projects
- daily coaching with répétiteurs.

The Studio is based in Colmar, in a professional setting with appropriate facilities. The gross monthly salary is €2,000.
