

The Opera Studio is recruiting

a pianist repetiteur for the 2026/2027 season

Auditions: April 1st 2026

The Opéra national du Rhin (OnR) is recruiting a pianist repetiteur for the Opera Studio's 2026/2027 season.

Program to prepare (to play and to sing)

- a Mozart opera finale of your choice
- the overture of Mozart's Don Giovanni
- a complete opera of your choice (not Mozart's Don Giovanni, and one that is different and in a language other than that of the finale).

Audition program

- a performance of extracts from the prepared programme under a conductor's direction
- a sight-reading
- a coaching with a singer of the Opera Studio
- an interview with the jury.

Recruitment procedure

The audition is open to young pianists of all nationalities being less than 32 years old on September 1st 2026. The selected candidates will receive a personal invitation for the auditions.

Your application shall include

- a Curriculum Vitæ (with your date of birth)
- a motivation letter
- the list of the chosen pieces for the auditions
- a video accompanying a singer in concert conditions.

Please send your application until March 9th 2026 to:
Mr Émile Huvé, Opéra Studio's administrative and production coordinator | auditionoperastudio@onr.fr

The auditions will take place in Strasbourg on April 1st 2026.

Teaching program – under the supervision of the musical director of the Opera Studio

- acquisition and development of repertoire
- masterclasses with invited pianists, conductors, singers, etc.
- language courses
- accompaniment of the coachings for the singers of the Opera Studio, in order to prepare their roles or concert programs
- accompaniment of concerts, recitals, auditions, etc.
- participation in an opera production
- participation in external manifestations: educational actions, partners, institutions, etc.

As part of their training, the pianist may be required to accompany choir preparation lessons, or participate in staging services during opera rehearsals.

The Opera Studio is based in Colmar in a professional setting. The gross monthly salary is € 2000. The pianist will be under contract for one season (from November 2nd 2026 to June 30th 2027). The OnR may offer the pianist to stay for a second season.
